Case No. 2:11-cr-00304-RCJ-PAL

ORDER

16
17 Pending before the Court is Counsel's Amended Motion to Withdraw as Counsel of Record
18 for Darrell Connors, (Dkt. 156).<sup>1</sup> For the following reasons, the Court grants the motion and 19 recommends that CJA attorney Jamie Resch be appointed as counsel of record in this case.

20 Lisa A. Rasmussen was appointed to represent Connors in this case on April 9, 2018. (Dkt.
21 156 at 1); (see also Dkt. 115). This case is currently on appeal at the Ninth Circuit. (Dkt. 156 at 22 <sup>1</sup> Counsel filed the pending motion amending only to correct the mailing address provided for Connors.

23 (Dkt. 156 at 1). Thus, the Court will consider moot counsel's original motion to withdraw, (Dkt. 155).

2); (see also Dkt. 150). At times, Rasmussen and Conners have had a “difference of opinion . . . as to what the priorities are in his case.” (Dkt. 156 at 2). The motion states that “[t]here are times in cases when a defendant and his lawyer do not see eye to eye on the preferred course of action and this is one of those instances.” (Id. at 2–3). Therefore, the motion argues that due to Conners’ frustration, it “appears that he would be better served by having a different attorney represent him in this matter.” (Id. at 3).

Currently pending in state court is another case involving Conners, where he is represented by CJA attorney Jamie Resch. (Dkt. 156 at 2, 4). At Conners’ request, Rasmussen believes that it would be best if she withdraws as Conners’ counsel in this case. (Id. at 2–3). She recommends that the Court consider appointing Mr. Resch as her replacement as he is handling “the state court post-conviction matter and its resolution could impact the Judgment in this case.” (Id. at 3, 4–5). Further, Rasmussen notes that “there is no upcoming trial or hearing” in this case where a chance of counsel could materially affect Conners’ case. (Id. at 3).

Rule 1.16 of the Nevada Rules of Professional Conduct allows a lawyer to seek to withdraw from a case where good cause exists and if withdraw can be accomplished without any adverse impact on the interests of the client. Rule 1.16(b)(1) (“[A] lawyer may withdraw from representing a client if . . . [w]ithdrawal can be accomplished without material adverse effect on the interests of the client[.]”). Rasmussen has established that good cause exists in this case to permit withdrawal and that withdrawal would not harm her client. The Court agrees with Rasmussen and recommends that Jamie Resch be appointed as counsel in this case.
